STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Students of The National Teachers College are members of a professional learning community and are expected to demonstrate the knowledge, dispositions, and ethical responsibilities of the teaching profession. The Student Professional Standards establish the expectations that guide students' academic performance, professional conduct, and interactions within the College and partner schools.

The Student Code of Conduct reflects the behavioral expectations for all students enrolled at The National Teachers College. Students are expected to comply with College policies and to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the responsibilities of graduate students and professional educators.

This Student Code of Conduct establishes the standards of professional conduct expected of all individuals acting on behalf of The National Teachers College. By signing this form, the student acknowledges commitment to:

- Comply with all College policies and procedures.
- Uphold the Academic Integrity and Professional Conduct Policy.
- Attend and participate in required academic activities.
- Respect the rights, dignity, and property of others.
- Maintain appropriate professional conduct in College and school settings.
- Protect the confidentiality of student and institutional information.
- Follow all applicable laws and partner school policies while participating in school-based activities.
- Use College facilities, technology, and resources responsibly.
- Report conduct that threatens the safety, integrity, or well-being of the College community.
- Cooperate with College officials during investigations or disciplinary proceedings.

The College views student conduct as an important aspect of professional development. Conduct concerns are addressed through processes that encourage reflection, accountability, and continuous improvement while protecting the integrity of the College community and the teaching profession.

When appropriate, the College may implement supportive interventions, corrective actions, or disciplinary measures, up to and including dismissal, in accordance with institutional policies and procedures.

All students are expected to acknowledge this Student Code of Conduct upon enrollment in any of the College's M.Ed. programs and by signing below.
